Edward Swanson was a young physician. He and his wife Margaret, both died in 1833. His casket cost $40.00, and was made by a man with the unusual name of Peter Scrimshaw, who also charged $30 for palings around the grave and another $5 to paint them. Of course, they rotted, and there is no stone to mark the Swanson graves.

DEATH OF DR. VICK.—Among the victims of the late smallpox epidemic here, we regret to learn was Dr. Thomas E. Vick, eldest son of J. Wesley Vick, Esq. of this city. Dr. Vick got upon the Carter at Egg's Point, and has not been heard from since the explosion. He was a young gentleman of education and culture, the center of the affections of a large family connection, and much mourned by hosts of friends.
